

Quick Way to Copy Flip Video to H: Drive:

1. Log in to your computer.
2. Connect the Flip video camcorder to a USB port on your computer. Wait for the camera to be recognized by the computer.
3. Double-click My Computer. Look for the Flip camera icon.
4. Double-click the Flip camera icon to open the camera.
5. Double-click DCIM.
6. Double-click 100Video.
7. The .AVI files will appear. Click the first .avi file. Hold down the Shift key and click the last file that you want to copy.
  - a. (If you have select files to copy, click the first one, then hold down the CTRL key and individually click the other select files until all are selected.)
8. Right-click on the highlighted files. Click Copy. Minimize this window.
9. Go back and open the My Computer window.
10. Double-click your H: drive. If you don't already have one, create a folder to copy and paste the .avi files into.
11. To create a folder, right-click in a blank space, click New, click Folder, give it a name.
12. Open the folder that will hold the video files. Right-click Paste.
13. Close out all files and windows.

Questions????

Contact Dian Hofstad, TOA